For this homework, the red is when it is checking for an open port and the bluish grey is when the packets are being sent out. Also within the code for the send function I have verbose = 0 in line 51 so that Sent 1 packet doesn't print every time a packet is sent if you want to change that you can just make that one.